Discovery is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Deputy DSLs must be trained to the same standard as the designated safeguarding lead. Whilst the activities of the designated safeguarding lead can be delegated to appropriately trained deputies, the ultimate lead responsibility for child protection, remains with the designated safeguarding lead, this lead responsibility should not be delegated.

MAIN DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Along with the lead DSL's and other deputy DSL's take responsibility for safeguarding and child protection.
- They will be given the time, funding, training, resources, and support to provide advice and support to other staff on child welfare and child protection matters.
- To take part in strategy discussions and inter-agency meetings – and/or to support other staff to do so – and to contribute to the assessment of children.

MANAGE REFERRALS

The deputy designated safeguarding lead is expected to:

- Refer cases of suspected abuse to the local authority children's social care as required.
- Refer cases to the Channel programme where there is a radicalisation concern as required
- Refer cases where a person is dismissed or has left due to risk/harm to a child to the Disclosure and Barring Service as required.
- Refer cases where a crime may have been committed to the Police as required.

WORKING WITH OTHERS

The designated safeguarding lead is expected to:

- Act as a source of support, advice, and expertise for staff.
- Act as a point of contact with the safeguarding partners.
- Liaise with the Designated Safeguarding Lead to inform them of issues- especially ongoing enquiries under section 47 of the Children Act 1989 and police investigations.
- Liaise with all staff on matters of safety and safeguarding and when deciding whether to make a referral by liaising with relevant agencies.
- Promote supportive engagement with parents and/or carers in safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, including where families may be facing challenging circumstances.

Job Description

- Work with the Designated Safeguarding Lead to promote educational outcomes by knowing the welfare, safeguarding and child protection issues that children in need are experiencing, or have experienced, and identifying the impact that these issues might be having on children's attendance, engagement, and achievement at school. This includes:
- Ensuring that the relevant staff know which children have or have had a social worker, understand their academic progress and attainment, and maintain a culture of high aspirations for this cohort.
- Support teaching staff to provide additional academic support or reasonable adjustments to help children who have or have had a social worker reach their potential, recognising that even when statutory social care intervention has ended, there is still a lasting impact on children's educational outcomes.

INFORMATION SHARING AND MANAGING THE CHILD PROTECTION FILE

The Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead is expected to:

- Ensure that child protection files are kept up to date (information should be kept confidential and stored securely).
- Keep detailed, accurate, secure written records of concerns and referrals on CPOMS.
- Where children leave the school or college (including in year transfers) ensure the child protection file is transferred to the new school or college as soon as possible, and within 5 days for an in-year transfer or within the first 5 days of the start of a new term. This should be transferred separately from the main pupil file, ensuring secure transit, and confirmation of receipt should be obtained.

RAISE AWARENESS

The Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead is expected to:

- Ensure that all staff have access to, understand and use appropriately the school's child protection policies.
- Ensure the school's Child Protection Policy is reviewed annually (as a minimum) and the procedures and implementation are updated and reviewed regularly, and work with the Advisory Board regarding this.
- Ensure the Child Protection Policy is available publicly and parents know referrals about suspected abuse or neglect may be made and the role of the school in this.
- Link with the local safeguarding partnership to make sure staff are aware of training opportunities and the latest local policies on safeguarding.

TRAINING, KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS

The Designated Safeguarding Lead will:

- Undergo training to provide them with the knowledge and skills required to carry out the role. This training should be updated at least every two years and certificates given to the school as evidence.
- Undertake Prevent awareness training.
- Keep their knowledge and skills up to date (through bulletins, attendance at Discovery DSL network meetings, keep informed about national and local safeguarding developments) at regular intervals, as required, but at least annually, to allow them to understand and keep up with any developments relevant to their role.
- Understand the assessment process for providing early help and statutory intervention, including local criteria for action and local authority children's social care referral arrangements.
- Understand the lasting impact that adversity and trauma can have, including on children's behaviour, mental health and wellbeing, and what is needed in responding to this in promoting educational outcomes.
- Have a working knowledge of how the local authority conduct a child protection case conference and a child protection review conference and be able to attend and contribute to these effectively when required to do so.

- Understand and support the school with regards to the requirements of the Prevent duty and can provide advice and support to staff on protecting children from the risk of radicalisation.
- Understand the unique risks associated with online safety and be confident that they have the relevant knowledge and up to date capability required to keep children safe whilst they are online at school.
- Recognise the additional risks that children with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) face online, for example, from online bullying, grooming and radicalisation and are confident they have the capability to support children with SEND to stay safe online.
- Encourage a culture of listening to children and taking account of their wishes and feelings, among all staff, in any measures the school may put in place to protect them.

AVAILABILITY

- During term time the Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead will always be available (during school hours) for staff in the school to discuss any safeguarding concerns. Whilst the Designated Safeguarding Lead (or deputy) would be expected to be available in person. In exceptional circumstances availability via phone and/or TEAMs or other such mediums is acceptable.
- For any out of hours/out of term activities the Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead will be part of a rota to ensure that adequate and appropriate cover arrangements can be made.

Depending upon Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead area of expertise, they may be a Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead for a specific area.

Hannah Oselton is the Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead for LAC/PLAC.

Deputy DSL for LAC and PLAC

The Deputy DSL for LAC and PLAC will:

- Work with local authorities to promote the educational achievement of registered pupils who are looked after.
- Promote the educational achievement of children who have left care through adoption, special guardianship or child arrangement orders or who were adopted from state care outside England and Wales.
- Ensure the school's behaviour management policy sufficiently flexible to respond to looked-after and previously looked-after children's challenging behaviour in the most effective way.
- Ensure the school's policies are sensitive to their needs, e.g. in accessing out of school hours learning, teaching and Learning, interventions and resources.
- Ensure that appropriate staff have the information they need in relation to a child's looked after legal status (whether they are looked after under voluntary arrangements with consent of parents, or on an interim or full care order) and the child's contact arrangements with birth parents or those with parental responsibility.
- Have information about the child's care arrangements and the levels of authority delegated to the carer by the authority looking after him/her.
- Have details of the child's social worker and the name of the virtual school head in the authority that looks after the child.
- Ensure all staff should have the skills, knowledge and understanding to keep previously looked after children safe.
- Work together with all agencies to ensure prompt action is taken when necessary to safeguard these children.
- Ensure there are no unintended barriers to LAC and PLAC pupils' admission to the school.

- Consider any issues arising because of the number of LAC and PLAC pupils and report to the Designated Safeguarding Lead.
- Ensure LAC and PLAC make the expected or better levels of progress over the past twelve months in line with their peers (i.e. educational, social and emotional progress).
- Consider patterns of attendance and exclusions for LAC and PLAC pupils (LAC DSL must inform the Virtual School where looked after children are absent without authorisation).
- Review the PEP regularly to make sure it is up-to date and clear about what has or has not been taken forward, noting what resources may be required to further support the child and from where these may be sourced.
- Ensure that no looked-after child should miss out on the opportunity of a school trip as a result of delays in obtaining a permission slip.

SPECIAL FACTORS:

Subject to the duration of the need, the special conditions given below apply:

The post holder will be required to attend, from time to time, training courses, conferences, seminars or other meetings as required by his/her own training needs and the needs of the school.

This post is subject to a check being carried out at an Enhanced level by the Disclosure Barring Service regarding any previous criminal record.

This job description sets out the duties and responsibilities of the post at the time when it was drawn up. Such duties and responsibilities may vary from time to time in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed. Such variations are a common occurrence and cannot themselves justify a reconsideration of the grading of the post.

Discovery Schools Academies Trust is seeking to promote the employment of disabled people and will make any adjustments considered reasonable to the above duties under the terms of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 to accommodate a suitable disabled candidate.
